Speaking of reconversion, asks one of our naval friends, when are the world powers going to redesign sailors' uniforms to give a little more pocket room and not so much collar and so many buttons.

Criticism

Criticism is the endeavor to find to know, to love, to recommend, not only the best, but all the good, that has been known and thought and written in the world. —"A History of Criticism," by George Saintsbury (1845-1933).

Fair Competition Preserves Private Enterprise
Important, indeed, is the declaration of the Automobile Manufacturers Association for continuance of our present competitive system of transportation in America.

Representing one of the largest industries in our country, the opposition voiced by the A. M. A. to a transportation integration program is worthy of close scrutiny.

"It is very doubtful," says the A. M. A., "that the public interest or that of transportation would be served by giving up a seasoned system of competition which is virtually free from public complaint by substituting an untried plan. Instead of being a stop-gap to government ownership and a means of preserving the competitive enterprise system, revolutionary integration of transportation might be the opening wedge to bring it about."

For the past thirty years in this country, the National Legislature has consistently maintained a policy of preserving competition between all forms of transport.

The strides made by aviation during World War II assure a great air transport fleet of commercial and private airplanes in the postwar years ahead. But that doesn't mean the end of railroads, steamships, buses, trolleys, motor trucks and automobiles. In fact, air transportation will increase the other forms of transportation, as it will open vast new fields of trade.

In order that the United States may have the greatest transportation system in the world and maintain air supremacy, Congress must see that each branch has the fullest encouragement in its field, and that all are properly coordinated for public service without domination of one by another for the purpose of controlling or limiting competition.

Planners Spend Your Money

The Oklahoma State Medical Journal says: "We hear much about inevitable social trends... the ultimate absorption of medical practices into the social security program through government compulsory taxation. The amounts of money of geometrical proportions necessary for such social medicine are considered the simplest arithmetic by social planners..."

The people are always led to think that government will give them something for nothing... then they are bled white through taxation to pay for the "gift." The present planned tax cost of socialized medicine would be more than the total cost of our Federal government a few short years ago, and that is only a start.

Meaning of Good Management

The most amazingly successful management job in history was the preparation for opening the second front. For sheer efficiency, it resembled the working methods of industry here at home. Men and materials were assembled at the right place at the right time to do a specific job. In the humdrum existence of peacetime, this organizing genius, traditional to the United States, never seemed very important. Management was often derided. But suddenly when our armies hit the beaches of Normandy, everyone prayed that nothing had been overlooked. They prayed that management and industry, in government and in the army had done a good job. Countless lives depended on good management.

If a single phase in the management of the invasion had failed, the whole project would have been thrown out of gear. For instance, thousands of land, sea and air craft, from giant tanks, jeeps, airplanes, and battleships, had to be fueled and ready to go on the instant of H-Hour. Fueling and lubricating the invasion was up to the American oil industry. That task has become known as the biggest "filling station" operation in history. It was done without a hitch, thanks to the good management of the oil men.

After the war is over, good management will be needed to keep industry going in the tough days of reconversion. It will be needed not only in the oil industry, but in mining, transportation, electric power, and every other enterprise. It saved lives in the invasion. In peacetime it will save jobs. There is no better manager than the independent American business man. We should remember this in the days to come.

CINEMATIC CHAPTER

By Malcolm Miller
Do. Sunday: Monday show at the Everglades is an old, familiar stage comedy to me... Due to the fact that I played this piece on the stage several years back, when it was one of the most popular comedies on double-header. First picture up is "You Can't Ration Love," slated for the Thursday-Friday run. First one up is "The Girl in the Case," with a strong cast. It is really a "comedy mystery" with Edmund Lowe on the receiving end.

Second picture up is a British picture under American supervision and under the title "Escape to Danger." This one lists Eric Portman, (whom we have seen here before) and Ann Dvorak, (ditto), and many others.

Saturday lists "Hail to the Rangers," with Chase Starrett as the principal star of the piece.

Rev. I. E. Enlow Accepts Call

Rev. I. E. Enlow of Dry Ridge, Kentucky, has accepted the call of the First Baptist church and is expected to arrive here with his family about December first.

Rev. Enlow is a graduate of the South Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Kentucky, and is very highly recommended. He has held several large and successful pastorates in Kentucky.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"We can't argue with the Judge on that point, can we? He's not far from penalizing the many for the actions of the few."

That, folks, is exactly what we would be doing in this country if we ever voted for prohibition again. Authorities who have made a careful study of the problem, report that only about 5% of those who drink abuse the privilege occasionally... 5% drink sensibly. Probably doesn't compare with the number of folks who overeat and do other things to excess. Prohibition certainly isn't the answer. It's not that simple. We had nearly 14 years proof of that, didn't we?

"The real answer is education and better control. In fact, the responsible members of the distilling industry are working constantly toward that end. They don't want anybody to abuse the use of their product any more than the three of us do."

"If everybody would take that sensible attitude, Judge, and cooperate as more and more are now doing, we'd be a lot better off a lot quicker."

FOR YOUR CAR, TOO!

You can give your car the same protection against wear that the Army gives many of its "Jeeps", tanks and other vehicles. Just see your nearby Sinclair Dealer. He has Sinclair lubricants of the same quality used by the U. S. Army.

To save wear on your engine, ask for Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil. Opaline stands up better and lasts longer because it is de-waxed and de-jellied. Have your Sinclair Dealer drain and refill your crankcase with Opaline every 1,000 miles.

"TIED DOWN"

THIS is the time of year, on these bright days, we like to go to the Glades... attend the Civic Club Meetings, play golf, visit with our many friends and see the many new crops in the making.

We always get a thrill from the thoroughness of the preparation of the soil for celery. Every celery grower prides himself on the straightness of his raws and the quality of his seed bed plants. We love to anticipate the future results from such thorough beginning.

This year with all three of our sons in the Armed Forces and the gas shortage we are "tied down" to the job here at home.

This is the beginning of a series of newspaper chats with our friends of the Glades. We wish we could grasp you by the hand and spend a few minutes in personal conversation.

We appreciate the great job the citizens of the Glades are doing for the development of Palm Beach County.

We appreciate the nice business we have had from the entire Glades area and only wish words could express what is in our heart.

A 'Giant' in Strength

Careful management has built the Woodmen of the World to a "Giant"—the world's financially strongest fraternal life insurance society, with assets exceeding $143,000,000.

For each $1,000 of over $367,500,000 of life insurance protection held by its members, the Woodmen Society has $570.15 of highly liquid assets—a reserve quickly available for any emergency.

Sole, sound legal reserve life insurance protection is highly important to Woodmen members, but they equally prize the benefits and pleasure they get from the Society's fraternal activities—Woodcraft's "protection plus" value not measurable in dollars and cents.

Let the local Woodmen representative tell you how you can secure safe, legal reserve Woodmen life insurance protection (offered to white males from birth to age 60) and also enjoy Woodcraft's fraternal and social benefits.

HERALD MAIL BOX

This column is for Herald readers to express their opinions on questions of the day. They are not necessarily the opinions of this paper.

The Belle Glade Herald,
Editor:

The closed-shop amendment No. 5 is so nearly worded like those which have been submitted in several other states that we suspicion this movement to crush labor unions comes from the same source.

Tom Watson, our Attorney General, is the instrument through which they hope to achieve their objective in Florida, although he claims authorship. Be that as it may, the Amendment would do away with organized labor in Florida; wages would be whatever was offered; the standard of living go down; and much that labor has fought for during the past fifty years nullified. While traveling in Europe some years back I found that in no European country was labor forbidden to organize for collective bargaining. None until Hitler made his first move in Germany. Are we going to allow an unscrupulous group to lead us into doing this thing to our fellowman and ourselves? God forbid.

Should Amendment No. 5 become part of our constitution the whole state would suffer, not only the (as some like to call those who work with their hands) "the irresponsible, when we eat, when we get our pants" but, the merchants, the farmers, the fruit growers—all will suffer—however the laborer the least for about all he gets anyway is what he can eat and wear.

They call it "Simple Americanism." Well its simple all right, but not Americanism if I know my history. I thought free enterprise was that, and freedom for one class to organize cannot be abridged with other classes have that right. Why not pick on the lawyers, the doctors, or the news publisher's organization, and others.

Watson claims that the unions are forcing the closed-shop. We are not and cannot. On the other hand he is trying to have passed a law which will force and open shop—what consistency. His Amendment is misleading in that the last paragraph states that collective bargaining by unions shall continue. If the law upholds the open shop part of the amendment what is there to bargain for? It should be thrown out for its inconsistency to begin with.

In the second place it is opposed to the Constitution and will only cause unnecessary expense and turmoil, for sixteen million union men in other states will not sit idly by and see the results of many years of work and sacrifice go down the sewer.

In answer to the query, "Will our fighting men be forced to pay exorbitant initiation fees in order to hold a job?"—I'll inform you that the carpenters union, the painters union, and others have passed resolutions cancelling initiation fees to returning soldiers for sometime after the war.

Let's not burn down the house because it may have some termites. Let us not cause disunity at a time when unity is so badly needed. To prevent strikes organization is needed. It establishes discipline.

It is impossible to kill labor organizations and leave other groups free to organize. That is not Democracy, but the beginning of the end of Democracy.

FIGHT AND WRITE

artillery and ack-ack. They lower their ack-ack and then, over the hedge rows at us. Once in a while too a mortar drops in, just to keep up our morale. We have enough men in one section to change over every few days. That allows the men up front to come back where they can clean up and shave and get some sleep. The last few days I was up there, I didn't wash or change my clothes until I returned. No water except for drinking. When the unit is pulled back for a rest we get showers and a change of clothes. I wear a helmet and carry my rifle everywhere, even to chow, when we have chow. The Co. Rations are eaten for breakfast and lunch. The kitchen brings up hot coffee and sandwiches at night. The other meals we eat cold or heat ourselves. The rations really aren't so bad, just tiresome. They have cigarettes, candy, and other items to go along with the meal.

The part I found so hard was digging a hole every night to sleep in. I didn't do so bad last night though, I had a blanket. After so long a time though, I got used to digging in, especially when shells are landing a few yards away. For two days I dug my face in the ground so many times I thought I had turned to dirt.

The other day after a particularly hard drive I spent the rest of the day and that night in an old Fort, built in 1870 or thereabouts. Had a bed to sleep on, but of course the place was in ruins. Quater holes everywhere, equipment twisted and broken up all over the place. The Germans are really dug in here and have some heavy stuff to throw at us. The 88's are the babies that keep us up at night, also S. P. M's give the line men trouble sometimes.

Things are quite a bit different than I thought they would be during action. I thought a radio operator would ride in a jeep, but all of my movements have been by foot. Sometimes with a radio on my back plus my equipment.

It's a tough life, but guess it could be worse. These bastards haven't got a chance but won't give up. They surrender by ones and twos and their officers are usually away when they do that.

"Right now the weather is fine, warm during the day but cool at night.

"Give my regards to all, and wish I was these in the Glades."

THE FLORIDA NATIONAL GROUP Reports to ITS DEPOSITORS

29,673 LOANS

Made by Florida National Group Banks to Florida Business, Agriculture, Industry and Individuals during the last 12 months

Bank loans and human enterprise provide the economic motive power that drives Florida ahead. Without this combination there is little progress . . . with it there is growth and prosperity, development and constant progress toward new horizons.

Of the bank loans made in Florida during the last 12 months, by far the greatest number made by any single financial organization have been made by banks of the Florida National Group, situated in 15 strategic centers of Florida's agriculture, commerce, industry and recreation.

In total dollar volume, these 29,673 loans amount to $153,223,651. This is a vast sum of money, and it has vast importance to Florida because it turns into potent energy that creates new businesses, expands old business, makes farmland fruitful and sets the wheels of industry humming faster and faster.

If you think of these loans in terms of money alone, they become merely a cold, remote and only slightly interesting statistic. But if you view them in terms of human values, in terms of pay-envelope dollars, of growth and of development, they challenge the imagination.

Whether you, as an individual, are not even distantly associated with any of the 29,673 borrowers to whom these loans were made, this money is, nevertheless, working for you because it is helping to build a greater prosperity for Florida and all Floridians.

Palm Beach County residents who plan to take the merit system examinations to be held in the near future were reminded today by M. R. L. Murray, member of the District 10 Welfare Board, that November 4 is the last date for filing applications.

The registers to be set up, Mrs. Murray said, are for 15 classes of positions with the State Welfare Board and the

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCAST

Question—Is it not probable that the six days of creation were, say, a thousand or a million years long?

Answer—Adam was created on the sixth day and lived over the seventh day, and the Scripture says that "all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years" Genesis 5:5. The theory of long time periods does not fit Adam's age.

Q—Doesn't the Bible say that the earth is held up on the shoulders of a giant?

A—Read it and see! In an age when others believed such things, a Bible writer proclaimed the great scientific truth that God "hanged the earth upon nothing" Job 26:7.

Q—What is the meaning of the word "Selah" in Psalm 55:19?

A—"Selah" occurs seventy-one times in the Psalms and three times in Habakkuk. It is evidently a musical term meaning "pause" or "rest."

Q—Why do people call Palestine the Holy Land?

A—No doubt because the Bible does—in Zechariah 2:12: "And the Lord shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again."

Q—What does the word "Jesus" mean?

A—It means "Saviour." This is shown by the words of Matthew 1:21: "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call His name JESUS: for He shall save His people from their iniquities."

Q—Why does Easter come at such widely different times—from early in March to late in April?

A—Jesus was crucified at the Passover season, which always begins on the fourteenth day of the first Jewish month (Leviticus 23:5) and falls on different days of the week from year to year. But ecclesiastical authorities in the early centuries of the Christian era decreed that Easter should always be celebrated on Sunday—the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. However, there is no Bible instruction for the observance of Easter. The one occurrence of the word "Easter" (Acts 12:4) in our Authorized Version of the Bible is to be deleted, as it should have been translated "Passover." The word "Easter" is not the original at all. The Revised Version has it correctly translated "Passover."

Ed. Note: Address your questions to the BIBLE QUESTION COLUMN, The Voice of Prophecy, Box 55, Los Angeles 25, Calif. Bible questions of general interest will be answered in this column on space permits.

HE CAME HOME TWICE

Three times he has been forced to bail out, and one time just after he had sat down on a field another returning plane in trouble squatted right on top of him killing one crew member.

One plane he brought in without loss of crew member was hauled off unceremoniously to the graveyard without any attempt to rejuvenate it—it was beyond fixing. How he manipulated it home he doesn't know. A commendation from General Spaatz, the high knocker of the Strategic Air Forces and General at Doolittle of the English is a prized possession for skill and bravery.

Lefroy is enjoying a 30 day leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Alspaugh.

His record to date as a B-24 pilot just makes you know how the Krauts have been and will be brought to task by air power in the hands of youngsters with commanders Doolittle, Spaatz and their like.

Lane, Murphy, Alspaugh, Burke, Warren, Thatcher, Hollingsworth, Lamb, Howington, Harris, and scores of others from the muck are doing a jamb up job in uniform for you and me.

GIRL SCOUT

The local Troop Committee has had four chairmen, Mrs. C. E. Fiedel, Mrs. T. Breger, Mrs. M. Campbell and Mrs. K. Lutz. During the last ten years Girl Scouting has gone on in this community with no outside help. The girls have spent a great deal of time on badge passing, learning by doing. They have taken trips to various points of interest about town, the water works, the ice plant, the camps, the local stores finding out where they were run. They have gone on leave and camping trips and learned to take care of themselves in the outdoors. They have helped when they could with Red Cross work, Tuberculosis, the March of Dimes, etc.

They have through rummage sales, bake sales and the like earned money for their uniforms and running expenses. They saved over $100 toward a Scout Hut. Then by donations from local citizens and organizations raised enough money that, with the help of labor donated by the Carpenter's Union, they were able to build their Scout Hut.

At the present time there are three troops, one Captained by Ruth Beck, with Beverly Lutz doing the active work; another with Miss Wilder as Captain, and the third, the Senior Girl Scouts without a leader. There are about 60 girls registered in Belle Glade at the present time and more anxious to join in the Glades are available.

There are a group of girls 7, 8 and 9 years old which are being organized into "a Brownie Troop at the present time with Mrs. J. A. Bell as leader, but we still need leaders and plan this year to give leader training.

VITAL IN WAR.. NEEDED IN PEACE

Good railroads have proved indispensable to the life of the nation in time of war. They also play an important role in times of peace.

The Florida East Coast Railway, for example, pioneered in the development of the East Coast of Florida, founded new cities, has aided the growth and progress of this section for over forty years.

During the current war, the ability of this double tracked railroad to handle a huge volume of extra freight and military traffic has made possible vital new activities on the East Coast of Florida, increased the flow of products from grove and farm.

When peace returns, adequate railroad facilities will greatly aid in attracting the new residents, visitors, building activity and industries upon which the post-war progress of this section will depend.

Devoted exclusively to serving the East Coast of Florida, the Florida East Coast Railway is a local industry and institution, sharing your dreams of a better tomorrow and striving to make those dreams come true.
